

2012 Flying and Engineering Bursaries

The de Havilland Educational Trust is seeking applications for the 2012 award of Fiona McKay Flying Bursaries and Engineering Bursaries.

The Fiona McKay Flying Bursary.

The Trust will award bursaries to fund ten hours conversion and consolidation flying on a Tiger Moth. The successful applicants are free to choose where they wish to fly, subject to approval by the Board of Trustees. The financial package on offer is based on the prevailing rate for ten hours flying at the Cambridge Flying Group.

An applicant must be the holder of a UK Licence appropriate to flying in command of a British registered Tiger Moth aircraft and must have logged a minimum of 75 hours pilot in command at the time of application.

The aim of the Bursary is to encourage licensed pilots to develop an interest and the necessary skills in handling vintage aircraft which can be carried forward as an asset to the vintage movement.

The de Havilland Educational Trust Engineering Bursary.

The Trust will award bursaries to applicants with a current or future interest in the restoration, maintenance and repair of vintage aircraft and engines. Applicants will be required to provide a plan for their advancement in this field and details of how the receipt of an Engineering Bursary would assist. Previous recipients have been funded to provide manuals, tools, association membership, licence fees, instruction courses and work placements.

Following scrutiny of every application, the Trustees will invite a number of applicants for either bursary for interview at Cambridge in May 2012. Additionally, candidates called forward in pursuit of a Fiona McKay Flying Bursary will have the opportunity of a 30/40 minute assessment flight in a CFG Tiger Moth at no cost to themselves.

Closing date for receipt of applications is midnight on Wednesday 29 February 2012. Applications may be delivered by post, e-mail or fax.
